

The RetroNerds are an 80s tribute band from St. Louis, Missouri. They perform the best retro hits in perfect sync with the original music video on multiple displays while dressed as nerds! In true nerd style, computers control all aspects of the sound, video, and lighting to turn this live performance into a unique show of musicianship, video, lighting effects and FUN! They have been performing as a regional act since 2011 and members perform in several groups around St. Louis. They have performed for clubs, restaurants, fundraisers, casinos, private parties, Comic Con and America's Got Talent. Sound engineers and venues appreciate their ability to perform without traditional amplifiers and acoustic drums allowing for a wide range of volume and sound clarity options. Grab your pocket protector, tape up your broken glasses and come watch four fun nerds take you back to the 80s!

Jason Nelson- Vocals
